Hodge was born in 1932 in Perry, Oklahoma. He started wrestling in high school and quickly became one of the best in the state. After graduating from high school, Hodge attended Oklahoma State University, where he won two NCAA championships. In 1956, he represented the United States at the Olympic Games in Melbourne, Australia, where he won a silver medal.

After the Olympics, Hodge turned professional. He wrestled for several years in the National Wrestling Alliance (NWA), where he won the world heavyweight championship three times. In 1979, he was inducted into the WWE Hall of Fame.

Hodge's story is one of inspiration. He overcame incredible odds to become one of the greatest wrestlers of all time. He is a role model for anyone who has ever faced adversity.
