

Easy Xi An And Xining For Solo Travellers

Easy Xi'an and Xining for Solo Travellers: Photos, Tips and Notes from the Roads by Aisyah Saad Abdul Rahim

★★★★★ 5 out of 5

Language : English

File size : 18490 KB

Lending : Enabled

Are you a solo traveller with a thirst for adventure and a passion for history and culture? If so, then Xi'an and Xining are two destinations that should be at the top of your list.

Xi'an, the ancient capital of China, is home to the world-famous Terracotta Army. Xining, the capital of Qinghai province, is a gateway to the Tibetan Plateau and the stunning Kumbum Monastery.

Both cities offer a wealth of things to see and do, and they are both relatively easy to navigate for solo travellers. In this article, we will provide you with all the information you need to plan your solo trip to Xi'an and Xining.

Xi'an

Xi'an is a city with a rich and fascinating history. It was the capital of China during the Tang Dynasty (618-907 AD), and it was a major stop on the Silk Road. Today, Xi'an is a modern metropolis with a population of over 10 million people.

There are many things to see and do in Xi'an. Some of the most popular tourist attractions include:

- The Terracotta Army: This is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and one of the most famous archaeological discoveries in the world. The Terracotta Army consists of over 8,000 life-sized terracotta warriors and horses that were buried with the first emperor of China, Qin Shi Huang.

- The Big Wild Goose Pagoda: This is a Buddhist pagoda that was built in the 7th century AD. It is one of the most iconic landmarks in Xi'an.
- The Muslim Quarter: This is a vibrant and colourful neighbourhood that is home to a large Muslim population. The Muslim Quarter is a great place to find delicious street food and souvenirs.
- The Shaanxi History Museum: This museum houses a vast collection of artefacts from Shaanxi province. It is a great place to learn about the history and culture of Xi'an.

Xining

Xining is a city located in the northeast of Qinghai province. It is the capital of Qinghai province and the gateway to the Tibetan Plateau. Xining is a relatively small city with a population of around 2 million people.

There are many things to see and do in Xining. Some of the most popular tourist attractions include:

- The Kumbum Monastery: This is one of the most important Tibetan Buddhist monasteries in China. It is home to over 300 monks and houses a vast collection of Buddhist art.
- The Qinghai Lake: This is the largest lake in China. It is a beautiful place to relax and enjoy the scenery.
- The Amne Machin National Park: This national park is home to a variety of wildlife, including Tibetan antelopes, wild yaks, and snow leopards.
- The Xining Mosque: This is one of the oldest mosques in China. It is a beautiful example of Islamic architecture.

Getting Around

Xi'an and Xining are both well-connected by public transportation. There are regular flights and trains between the two cities.

In Xi'an, you can use the metro to get around the city. The metro system is clean, efficient, and affordable.

In Xining, you can use buses to get around the city. The bus system is also clean, efficient, and affordable.

Where to Stay

There are a variety of hotels and guesthouses available in Xi'an and Xining. You can find budget-friendly options as well as luxury hotels.

Some of the most popular hotels in Xi'an include:

- The Sheraton Xi'an North City Hotel
- The Hilton Xi'an
- The DoubleTree by Hilton Xi'an

Some of the most popular hotels in Xining include:

- The Qinghai Hotel
- The Ramada Xining
- The Holiday Inn Express Xining

What to Eat

Xi'an and Xining offer a variety of delicious food options. Some of the most popular dishes include:

- Xi'an roujiamo: This is a type of Chinese hamburger that is made with pork belly and a variety of spices.
- Liangpi: This is a cold noodle dish that is made with wheat noodles and a variety of toppings.
- Huajuan: This is a type of steamed bread that is filled with meat or vegetables.
- Youpo che: This is a type of yoghurt drink that is made with fermented milk.

When to Go

The best time to visit Xi'an and Xining is during the shoulder seasons (April-May and September-October). During these months, the weather is mild and there are fewer tourists.

However, you can visit Xi'an and Xining at any time of year. The summers can be hot and humid, while the winters can be cold and dry.

Xi'an and Xining are two of the most fascinating cities in China. They offer a wealth of history, culture, and adventure. If you are looking for a solo travel destination that will leave you with lasting memories, then Xi'an and Xining should be at the top of your list.

Free Download your copy of 'Easy Xi An And Xining For Solo Travellers' today and start planning your adventure!

Free Download Now

Easy Xi'an and Xining for Solo Travellers: Photos, Tips and Notes from the Roads

by Aisyah Saad Abdul Rahim

★★★★★ 5 out of 5

Language : English

File size : 18490 KB

Lending : Enabled

Know Before You Go: The Ultimate Guide to Planning a Stress-Free Trip

Embark on an unforgettable journey with "Know Before You Go," the indispensable guide to planning a stress-free and extraordinary trip. This...

Memories of Disneyland Maintenance: Unlocking the Hidden World Behind the Magic

A Nostalgic Journey Through Time For over six decades, Disneyland has enchanted visitors of all ages, offering a realm of imagination, adventure,...