From ancient Egypt to the Wild West, from Nazi Germany to the present day, Gratz masterfully transports readers through the annals of history, immersing them in compelling and unforgettable adventures.

A Tapestry of Time and Character

The cast of characters in "The League of Seven" is as diverse as the time periods they inhabit. Meet Jack Kent, a twelve-year-old from present-day America who stumbles upon a mysterious antique ring that grants him the ability to travel through time. There's Marco Polo, the legendary explorer who embarks on a perilous journey through the Silk Road. Nadia, a young Egyptian girl, faces the challenges of a changing kingdom. Andromeda, a courageous Greek slave, seeks freedom amidst the brutality of Roman rule. Sam Wu, a Chinese immigrant, struggles for justice in the face of racism. Christopher Columbus, the infamous admiral, sails for the unknown, driven by ambition and greed. And Lucy, a young German girl, must confront the horrors of World War II.

The Power of Courage and Connection

Although separated by centuries, these seven individuals share a common bond: their resilience and determination in the face of adversity. Each story arc explores the challenges and triumphs of their respective eras, highlighting the universal themes of courage, love, and the enduring power of the human spirit. As the characters navigate their own journeys, they encounter glimpses of each other, forging an invisible connection that transcends time.
