Granny is starting to get worried. She doesn't know what she's going to do without her teeth. She can't eat her soup or her cookies. She can't even smile!

Just when Granny is about to give up hope, she hears a noise. It's the toilet! The water is starting to flush.

Granny watches in horror as her chompers disappear down the drain. They're gone forever!

Granny is so sad. She doesn't know what she's going to do without her teeth. But then, she remembers something. She still has her smile!

Granny smiles her biggest smile and says, "I may not have my chompers, but I still have my smile!"

Granny's story is a reminder that even when things don't go our way, we should never give up hope. We should always keep smiling, no matter what!
