

We Were There At The Boston Tea Party: An Unforgettable Historical Journey

Immerse Yourself in the Night that Changed the Course of American History

On a crisp December night in 1773, a group of colonists disguised as Mohawk Indians boarded three British ships anchored in Boston Harbor. Their mission? To protest the unfair taxation of tea by the British government. The event, known as the Boston Tea Party, would forever alter the course of American history, sparking the American Revolution and ultimately leading to the formation of the United States.
